

Praise for Presbyterians

We applaud local believers who voted to withdraw from their denomination because it views Jesus Christ only as “a moral teacher.” (“Two area churches leave Presbyterians,” Beacon Journal, Nov. 14). This denomination illustrates the position of Churchianity, “a form of godliness but denying his power” (II Timothy 3:5). The “primary breaking points” were the absolute authority of Scripture and the lordship of Jesus Christ (Romans 10:9).

Christianity says from Genesis to Revelation that we as humankind are born sinners and are in desperate need of a sinless savior. Christmas is the first step in God’s master plan to allow transformed men and women to enter Heaven. “For God so loved the world (insert your own name) that he gave his only son that whosoever believes in his name shall not perish but have everlasting life” (John 3:16).

Again, we commend believers in Stow and Hudson for “Standing on the Promises of God.” May all of us who confess Jesus Christ as Creator, Savior and Coming King do likewise.

Robert H. Parrish, Silver Center Church, Kent